Pudding Auction Details:

What is a Pudding Auction!

We are planning a pudding auction, so get your thinking caps on! Anything with alcohol going in always works a treat! As does 'gooey' puddings or a cheese board as a great accompaniment!

Here's how the pudding auction works:

Once you have thought of what you want to create bring the pudding on the evening & make sure its large enough for at least 4 people. You can be VERY creative, 'Imagine Bake-Off, MasterChef or Little Chef.. who knows! but once your creation is made, it will be put on display in the hall, accompanied by a written description (this is where you really plug your pudding) and at the right time each pudding will be auctions off!

You may create a scrumptious pudding, be warned, there may be many lips being licked wanting to eat your creation! So you could be out bid, especially if its Profiteroles covered in dark chocolate or a punchy Tiramisu.

All monies raised will go to the District Funds!
